Court Hearing Tomorrow On Police Station

Whether or not the city council has followed legal procedure in the proposed sale of the site of the police station and corporation yard at Mission and Seventh will be considered tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. in Salinas by Judge Anthony Brazil, Superior Court Judge of Monterey County.

City Attorney William B. Burleigh will represent all five members of the city council who are named as respondents in an alternative writ of mandate obtained by Barnet J. Segal who will be represented by Patricia Lane, his attorney.

Mr. Segal's legal action states that he, as a taxpayer and resident of Carmel, filed a written protest against the sale of the two-lot Mission and Seventh property on May 17, also that Councilmen Gunnar Norberg and William Sefton protested the sale on May 4, and that these protests were made prior to any final action of the council on the sale.

The alternative writ of mandate further states that the council is required by law to hear these protests, take action on them, and before proceeding with any sale of the police station site, to overrule the protests by a 4-1 vote.

In addition, Mr. Segal's writ states that the council advised him that it would receive bids, also sell the property, on June 8 without first considering his and Mr. Norberg's and Mr. Sefton's protests.

The alternative writ of mandate also asks that the council be commanded to hear and pass upon the protests of the three men, also take action on the protests by a 4-1 vote before proceeding with the sale of the police station site, or show cause why they have not done so tomorrow.

Prior to their meeting on June 8, all councilmen were served with Mr. Segal's alternative writ of mandate.

Tomorrow Judge Brazil will hear both the council's and Mr. Segal's sides of the matter. He may take immediate action or hold the matter under advisement in order to render a decision later. His decision will rest on whether or not he considers the council took final action, by a 4-1 vote, when it authorized the sale of the police station and corporation site on April 6 and thus proceeded legally to further action by 3-2 votes.

(No bids were received on June 8 for the Mission and Seventh property. The council at its meeting on that date, by a 3-2 vote, approved sale procedure which eliminated the calling for bids on the property. Mr. Norberg and Mr. Sefton opposed this action.)

WEATHER

(Forecast for 16-20 June)

Night and morning low clouds and fog with sunny periods during the day. Gusty afternoon winds, 10-20 miles an hour. Temperatures near normal, 60-72 days, 50's at night. 30 day outlook—near normal temperatures with very little rain.

NEW THEATRE OPENS TONIGHT

Seen at the invitational preview of Carmel's Village Theatre on Saturday evening were (left to right) Jack Martin, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Tom Graff and Mr. Graff. Several hundred guests were greeted at the door by the Graffs. Champagne punch was served in the lobby with windows looking onto Dolores Street. Visits were made to the upstairs projection room to see the Norelco projector and its 1,000 watt light bulb. A short color film of scenery of the United States was shown for the visitors to observe this new type of film projection.

Carmel's Village Theatre opened last night with a sold-out showing of "The Agony and the Ecstasy" to benefit All Saints' Episcopal Day School. Tonight, the new motion picture house will be opened to the public featuring the same film.

Tom Graff is operating owner of the theatre. He states no film which has been condemned by the Legion of Decency will be shown. His partners are Ed Dickenson and Nicholas Pecora. The land has been leased for 70 years by these men from the owners of the property at the southwest corner of Dolores and Seventh, Jack Martin, Art Strasburger, Howard Brunn and James Doud.

The 599-seat auditorium of Carmel's Village Theatre is decorated in shades of blue with a natural wood ceiling. Films will be screened by a Norelco Pulse-Lite projector, the second to be installed in any California Theatre.

The building, under construction since December, was designed by Kipp Stewart with George Willox as architect. A rustic feeling has been created both in the lobby and the auditorium. The latter is available to non-profit groups, conventions and fund raising events such as last night's benefit.

"What benefits the community, benefits me and my partners," Tom Graff declares. Last night's opening was a dream come true to him and the result of five and a half years of planning.

HOTEL BLAZE EXTINGUISHED

The Carmel Volunteer Fire Department responded at 12:35 a.m. yesterday to a call from Cypress West Hotel, where they extinguished a fire in a guest room. Damage from the blaze, believed to have been caused by a cigarette falling from an ashtray onto an overstuffed chair was estimated at over $3,000.

Carmel Planners See River Inn 108-Unit Apartment Project

Carmel planners looked at Burde and Shaw Associates' plans for a 108-apartment development at Carmel River Inn yesterday afternoon. This project will be in addition to the existing motel on the nine-acre property beside Highway One south of Carmel on the north bank of the Carmel River.

The apartment development was submitted to the Carmel Planning Commission by the county planning commmission staff as the property lies within Carmel's three-mile advisory zone to the county, also is included in the city's general plan area.

Owners of the property are requesting from the county a use permit allowing rezoning for construction of apartments. One of them H. R. Fonseca, said yesterday that the intent is to have permanent "mature" occupants in the apartments, mostly unfurn-

CIVIC CENTER PROJECT

Norberg-Sefton Vote Means City Can't Pay Debts

Councilman Herbert Blanks, because of illness, was absent from last night's city council meeting. Consequently, battle forces were evenly divided, two to a side, when a motion to authorize fund transfers to enable payment of previously contracted architectural services and excavation work in connection with the construction of a new police station and corporation yard, totalling $10,275.92, came to a vote. And implied threats of recall were hurled by both sides in the heat of the fray.

Councilmen Gunnar Norberg and William Sefton voted against the transfer of funds from the non-reserve capital outlay hostelry tax fund to cover the outstanding bills. Mayor Stephen Grant and Councilmen Eben Whittlesey voted for the transfer which, in effect, would be drawing money from a continuously replenished savings account to place in a checking account to cover bills received, according to City Finance Officer Arthur Plaxton.

Because the motion failed, the city is now unable to meet obligations legally contracted by the council in the amount of $4,775.92 to Burde, Shaw Associates and $5,500 to Granite Construction Company.

According to Mr. Plaxton, the transfer of funds from the capital outlay reserve fund to the special services account is routine, accepted, established accounting procedure of the city council approved by Robert Wefso who audits the city's books.

In the 1965-66 city budget, $10,000 was allocated to the architectural and engineering category of the special services area of the budget. At that time, it was known that costs of architectural services for the proposed new police station and corporation yard would have to be paid, but the total was unknown. A bill from the Division of Highways for soil tests, $361.70, and another from Burde and Shaw, $12,064.76 exceeded the money budgeted and a transfer of $4,883.54 from the hostelry tax non-reserve fund was made to cover the payment. Later bills caused this account to be overdrawn $2,542.92 and last night's transfers were to cover this deficit and the payment to Granite Construction Company, total $7,318.14.

Mr. Norberg contended that any transfer would be in violation of the state code.

Mayor Grant told Mr. Norberg that failure to pay the bills would "besmirch the credit rating of the city." Mr. Norberg contended the city was already besmirched by "illegal" council procedure. He added he had been elected by a majority of the voters and had the right to decide what not and what to do in regard to the transfers.

"Citizens are aware of council disputes, are perturbed and talking recall," he declared.

Mr. Whittlesey emphasized that the council was obligated to uphold the honor and integrity of the city in business dealings. Any councilman, who did not honor previous contracts was "petulantly taking advantage of the city council being short a member tonight."

He continued by saying that a "No" vote on the transfer, if related to previous negative votes on the police station and corporation yard construction, would in effect be stating "I'm going to be consistent, be dragged kicking and screaming through the whole process." This would make the city and the individual look ridiculous.

Mr. Norberg mentioned there was "armtwisting of someone who feels honestly that the whole effort is entirely improper. Someone is being brainwashed by the brainless," he concluded.

At this point Mayor Grant intervened. The League of California Cities' code for councilmen said that, once a decision was reached by a council, this decision should be upheld, he stated.

"There is a lot of work to do in this city, under duress and impeded by petulance. As for the threat of recall," he told Mr. Norberg, "I'll contribute the first $50 to the fund if I am concerned, it'll be worth $5,000 to me in income. I don't have to sit here and you may find there may be a surprise counter measure."

Mr. Sefton asked questions on the details of the transfers. He was told by Mr. Whittlesey that the shortage in the architectural and engineering category was the result of "something paid out that was not contemplated" when the budget was approved.

Mr. Plaxton added that the city council was unaware of the amount of the architectural contract at that time and agreed to

Sunset Commissioners Approve Budget Expenditures of $24,598

Various Sunset Center housekeeping expenses, provision of needed furniture and employment of a stage manager were approved by Sunset commissioners on Monday night while preparing a 1966-67 budget for submission to the city council. When they had finished, the proposed expenditures, which the council will either approve or deny, totalled $24,598.

Housekeeping expenses were contained in the maintenance and repair category of the Sunset Commission budget. Most were considered mandatory in order to bring the facility up to requirements of the state fire code. This list consisted of two one-hour fire-resistant doors, $225; wired glass for the window next to the wooden gymnasium exit stairway, $360; replacement of deteriorated stage rigging, $875; painting of parking stalls on center and south playfields, $50; improvement of walkway surfaces and lighting, $600; painting exterior sheet metal, $1,309; construction of storage facilities, $225; paint interior of auditorium, $5,000; installation of amber Belgian glass in foyer window, $264; construction of escape hatch door from projection room to balcony, $215.

Estimates will be obtained for replacement of deteriorated fire hose in cabinets and for regular testing of the sprinkler system, also hoses, for inclusion in this budget category at the commission's next meeting on June 27.

Sunset Center furnishings approved were in the capital outlay category of the commission's budget. These consisted of an aluminum ladder, $250; auditorium

Nancy's Peace Corps Day In Afghanistan

A young woman from Carmel, Nancy Bibb, is serving with the Peace Corps in Afghanistan. In a letter home she describes her training program started two months ago in the city of Kabul. Her parents are Colonel and Mrs. Everett Bibb.

Nancy detailed her day as follows: 5:30 a.m., awake, next 45 minutes spent in getting turn in bathroom without hot water, and shared by eight persons; 6:15, breakfast; 7:00, hour of instruction in Dari language; 8:00-11:00, teach English to senior class of the faculty of education at Kabul University; 11:00, hour of technical studies; noon, lunch. After lunch, three more hours of Dari, two hours of area studies, then dinner. Evenings, study Dari and prepare lesson plans.

"After that we collapse, only to begin the routine again at 5:30 the next morning," she says.

Despite her lack of privacy and freedom, Nancy states, "I love Afghanistan, even in my more antagonistic moods when I silently swear at the rain for causing pervasive, muddy slush. The mountains are fantastically beautiful, especially the Hindu Kush with snow.

"The bazaars are unreal. After a superficial inspection, I am convinced there is nothing one can't buy in this town if one is willing to scrutinize the dark alley shops. Of course, my biggest problem, at present, is the language barrier. It is exceptionally difficult to bargain with the shopkeepers when one has a vocabulary of a two-year-old.

"I had my first Afghan dinner last night. Six of us were invited to a home. We arrived around 7:30 o'clock thinking that the meal would be served fairly soon—but it wasn't. We sang along with the cousins, the aunts, the uncles, the grandmothers, the daughters—one hour, two hours—then we listened to one of the uncles, who had a magnificent voice, sing classical Indian compositions. Three hours, and at last we ate. Fortunately, there was a great deal of food and, as expected, a great deal of pilau."

Talented Cast Deserves Accolades For Work In Poor Play At Circle

BY DUKE EVERTS

"The Gazebo," currently being presented at the Circle Theatre in two acts, was better written in three acts 30 years ago. Apparently, the author decided to take an old plot, dust it off, and put it in a current setting.

The plot revolves around a bright, young New York area couple (and don't all plays these days?) and the purchase of a gazebo, an eighteenth-century summerhouse, and some old shower curtains. As the play develops, they all get used. And used. And used.

We looked forward to the performance of this play because of the return to the local stage of Peggy Chandler, also the appearances of Dick Bird and Dick Vreeland. We were disappointed. A talented trio such as this was completely wasted on a play not worthy of them and certainly not worthy of the history of the Circle Theatre, the scene of some excellent productions.

Hardly one bad word can be said for anyone on the stage at any time. A lot of hard work went into the production by everyone concerned. In addition to being given a bad play, the actors were further sabotaged by a stage too crowded by furniture and "busy," repetitious blocking making it difficult for the actors to move horizontally. Perhaps that accounted for a lot of their nervous, vertical action. There were a few flaws on the actors' parts so minor that we're sure they will be corrected as the run progresses.

As you can guess by now, this is not so much a review as a general criticism of the management of the Circle Theatre. With so many good plays available to any amateur theatrical group, why present proven failures. "The Gazebo" didn't make it on the New York stage, and the cinema version didn't fare any better. Harmless, innocuous plays of this type should be left in the capable hands of any high school drama class; not be presented by a theatre that has the reputation of the Golden Bough Circle.

The actors deserve accolades for appearing to be so good in a play that is so bad. It takes a lot of talent to make such a potboiler enjoyable. Dick Bird will probably lose 30 pounds through the run of the play. If he tried, I'm sure he'd find liquid dieting easier and more enjoyable and rewarding. If the laughter by the preschool and subteen groups in the audience is any indication—and the play seemed to be particularly enjoyed by those groups—perhaps "The Gazebo" should be billed "For Minors Only," just as some of the theatre is now "For Adults Only."

The local theatres are able and lucky to find excellent talent all over the Peninsula but it's getting more and more difficult to get any of them to participate in local theatre. The general public may not realize it, but the actors don't get paid—there is no reason they should. But the management of any theatre should at least be decent enough to give them a play to work in in which they can be proud of their accomplishments. PLEASE, Circle Theatre management, return to what the Circle was built on. Excellent acting in excellent plays.

50 Years Ago in Carmel

—THIS WEEK—

WE WANT WATER NOW

At last Friday night's mass meeting the citizens, in no uncertain terms, demanded for Carmel from the Monterey County Water Works a supply of water sufficient for fire-fighting and for household use.

After a vigorous ringing of the fire alarm bell summoned people to the meeting, Perry Newberry started proceedings with a straight-forward address on the rights of the community to ask and receive improved water service.

At the conclusion of the address, a resolution was adopted by the assembled citizens, and a committee appointed to present it to the water company.

All residents and property owners are urged to sign this resolution at the Pine Cone office, at once.

SPLENDID PAINTINGS ON EXHIBITION

On the walls of the Arts and Crafts Hall there hangs the finest collection of pictures ever gathered here—all by Carmel artists.

In all, there are 77 paintings on exhibit and each has a high degree of merit. What strikes one is the distinctive individuality of each artist's work.

Carmel may well be proud of this display. No one should fail to see these paintings, not once, but several times.

VISIT NEW STORE

Tomorrow will be the opening day for Ben Leidig's new grocery store. With the large number of cottages here now and his popularity with the townspeople, smiling Ben ought to do good business right from the start. The business will be conducted on a strictly cash basis and there will be no delivery of goods. Carry everything home yourself.

VICTROLA FUND

Frederick Preston Search has offered to give a concert for the Sunset School victrola fund.

GETTING UP SPEED

Last week, on the same day, two new auto delivery cars made their appearance in Carmel. Both are of the Vim make and the name aptly describes the owners. Leidig Bros. will now deliver your groceries promptly and often in their little "Black Maria." Dad Hamilton, with "U.S. Mail" and "Package Delivery" painted on his car, will greatly hasten matters.

Get Aboard.

HARD REHEARSALS

Coach Glenn Hughes and his small army of actors, near actors and would be actors are persistently and nightly licking "Yolanda" and "The Piper" into shape.

During this week, the Forest Theater Society will begin sending out advertising and press matter. Tickets shortly will be placed on sale.

Miss Willhelmina Wilkes, who plays Veronika in "The Piper," produced this play in Los Angeles and also was one of a party of Americans who witnessed the original production at Stratford-on-Avon.

Frederick Preston Search is gathering together an excellent orchestra, so we may look forward to some fine music as well as two splendid plays at the Forest Theater.

PINE NEEDLES

Mrs. James Hopper and her three children are in Carmel again after a long absence. My how the children have grown! (Now we know you aren't 50 years old, Jane Hopper Vial.) . . . Mrs. G. H. Boke and her three daughters, who have been East for some time, arrived here last week for a considerable stay . . . Mrs. Opal Heron, Constance and Billy have departed for Los Angeles for an indefinite stay . . . Mrs. F. H. Powers and children are again greeting Carmel friends . . . Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Criley were visitors at the art exhibition on Friday . . . Last Wednesday the Nichols and Ackerman families took a trip to Sacramento.

Forum Saturday On Community Beautification

Beautification — present and future — of the Monterey Peninsula will be the theme of the first annual "Community Beautification Forum" sponsored by the Monterey Council for Conservation and Planning to be held at the Indian Village conference grounds in Del Monte Forest at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday.

Colonel Allen Griffin and C. T. Hill, both of Pebble Beach will give the opening talks. Dudley Swim of Carmel Valley, president of the Monterey County Council for Conservation and Planning, will preside.

"The Forum has been created to afford a stimulating interchange of ideas for further community beautification to be accomplished by private groups or individuals in the spirit of individual responsibility and friendly neighborliness." according to Mr. Swim.

Architecture, design of gates and fencing, street and roadside plantings, decorations, deer resistant flowers and shrubs, and avoidance of large unsightly cuts in road construction will be among the many topics of the forum.

Sunset Budget

stage and acoustic improvements, $3,000; new chairs in the balcony, $6,000; 100 chairs for use in the cafeteria, plus nine dollies to move these chairs about, $1,225.

The sum budgeted for employment of a stage manager was $5,000, to be placed in the special services category of the Sunset Commission budget.

Referred to an ad hoc committee, consisting of Captain Frank Falge and Ted Fehring, was study and report on the possibility of allowing rent-free use of the former kindergarten bungalow at Sunset by the Carmel Girl Scouts. This arrangement would allow the Harrison Memorial Library to use the former site of the Girl Scout House for a children's library.

Comments by individuals and representatives of service clubs, property owners' associations, garden and conservation clubs, and planning commissions will highlight the many projects undertaken by individuals and groups to enhance the beauty of the Monterey Peninsula. Presentations will vary in scope from an individual's exceptional garden project to the continuing beautification of all of Fort Ord.

Samuel Bonsall

Private services for Samuel N. Bonsall, who died at his home on Camino Real and Santa Lucia Tuesday night, have been held in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove.

With his wife, Mabel, he was a resident of Carmel since 1943, when he retired after 20 years as an insurance broker in Los Angeles. He was born August 7, 1881, in Portsmouth, Ohio, and had lived in California for 78 of his 84 years.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Bonsall leaves a nephew, Sam Haskins of St. Malo, California; a niece, Mrs. Robert (Barbara) Niven of Los Angeles; and a great-nephew and niece, Sam and Francesca Farr of Carmel. He was the uncle of the late Janet Farr, wife of State Senator Fred Farr of Carmel.

Inurnment took place in El Carmelo Urn Garden. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Cathy James Is A Bride

Before a group of family members, Catherine James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James, was married yesterday to Dr. Michael McWilliams of Davis at the James home in Carmel Highlands. The midday ceremony, read by the Reverend Karel Vit, took place in the library, where flowers from the garden banked a window overlooking the Pacific.

Honey Williams of Carmel Highlands was Cathy's maid of honor, and Daniel E. Willard, the bride's brother-in-law, served as best man.

Cathy attended schools in Los Angeles and has just completed her sophomore year at the University of California at Santa Barbara as a biology major. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. D. L. James of the Highlands and of Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Roes of San Pedro. Mrs. Daniel E. Willard of Davis is her sister.

The bridegroom, son of Colonel and Mrs. Edward McWilliams of Washington, D. C., holds a D.V.M. degree and is in his third year of graduate study at UC Davis toward his doctorate in virology. The grandson of Byron B. Reynolds of Los Angeles and Mrs. C. H. Kellar of Seaside, he has one sister, Mrs. Lynn W. Johnson of Des Plaines, Illinois.

After an informal wedding breakfast, the couple left for a honeymoon at the Lake Tahoe cottage of a friend. They will reside in Davis, where both will continue their studies at the University of California.

Barbara Vincent Married

In the presence of their immediate families, Barbara Channer Vincent and Gerald Henares exchanged wedding vows before the Reverend David Hill at All Saints' Episcopal Church on Saturday. White daisies and ivy sprays on moss green ribbons adorned the entrance to the church pews for the noon ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Charles Ridgely Vincent of Carmel, the bride wore an ivory sheath of embossed knit, fashioned with a bateau neckline and small sleeves. In her hair was a Spanish comb brought from Spain by the bridegroom to his mother. Over this, draped mantilla style, was a Rose Point veil made for her great-grandmother nearly 100 years ago. Barbara's string of pearls was a gift from her paternal grandmother, her oriental pearl earrings a gift from her maternal grandmother. White daisies and trailing ivy made up the nosegay she carried.

The bride's parents were hosts at a family luncheon in the garden of their home after the ceremony. The couple will return this weekend from a honeymoon in Las Vegas to make their home in Monterey.

The new Mrs. Henares attended Carmel schools, the Danish Royal Conservatory of Music in Copenhagen, Denmark, Monterey Peninsula College and, until her marriage, San Francisco State College. She is the sister of Peter and Patricia Vincent of Carmel and of David Ridgely Vincent who, with his wife and daughter, were here from Casa Grande, Arizona, for the wedding. Barbara's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ridgely Vincent Sr. of Menlo Park, also attended the ceremony.

Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas G. Henares of Carmel Knolls, graduated from Monterey High School and Monterey Peninsula College. He studied also at the University of Seville in Spain, San Francisco State College and has recently been attending the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies.

Newlyweds Returning

The Reverend Lloyd Eugene Johnston, assistant clergyman of All Saints' Episcopal Church, returns to Carmel this weekend with his bride, the former Sheila Jane Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Crawford of Oak Ridge, Tennessee. The couple's marriage took place on June 4 in St. Stephens Episcopal Church in Oak Ridge, with the Reverend Moultire McIntosh officiating.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnston of Keokuk, Iowa.

Members of All Saints' Episcopal Church are looking forward to welcoming the newlyweds, who have been traveling in the East since their wedding.

Memorial Day Baby

Memorial Day will be the more memorable for Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Aliotti, who became parents of their third daughter, Gina, on that day. Born at Community Hospital, the new baby is the sister of twins Anna and Maria, aged three years and three months.

Gina's maternal grandmother is Mrs. Edd Fischer of Carmel. Her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Aliotti, are Monterey residents.

Returning To Brazil

Returning next week to their home in Rio de Janeiro are Mr. and Mrs. Fred John Davy who, with their younger daughter, Susan, have been vacationing here for the past two months. Mr. Davy's mother, Mrs. Margaret Leighton Davy, is a Carmel resident.

The couple's other daughter, Jane, has just completed her freshman year at the University of California, Santa Barbara, to which she will return after spending the summer with her family in Rio.

Turnabout Hospitality

Jim and Billie Newmarch, who this winter were guests of Mrs. Delma Hacker at her home at Kailua, Hawaii, are now entertaining the former Hawaiian resident at their Carmel home. Conditioned to the gentle warmth of the Islands, Mrs. Hacker is finding it difficult to choose a mainland area for her future home. "Maybe," remarks Billie hopefully, "she'll just have to go back to Hawaii every winter—and, of course, I'll have to keep her company."

Brintons Have A New Son

Dick and Mary Brinton are the happy parents of a second son, Craig Avard, who was born in Los Gatos on June 8 and is now at home in Carmel. With the new baby and his 21-month-old-brother, David, the Brintons are off soon for two weeks of relaxation at Lake Tahoe.

Craig is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brinton of Carmel and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ellis of Oxnard.

Dennis Johnsons Here

The Arthur E. Johnsons are enjoying a visit from their son, Sergeant Dennis L. Johnson (USAF), and his wife, the former Lorna Forester of Carmel, who arrived recently from Kessler AFB at Biloxi, Mississippi. They will be here until June 26, when they will leave for the Philippines and Denny's new assignment at Clark AFB.

Denny and Lorna, both Carmel High School graduates, were here in time to attend the graduation of his brother, Arthur Jr., better known as Jim, from the same school Friday. Soon to begin his fourth "hitch" in the Air Force, Denny attended Monterey Peninsula College before his enlistment.

Wed At Carmel Mission

Masses of bright spring flowers adorned each side of the altar of Carmel Mission Basilica for the Saturday marriage of Barbara "Julie" Sheppard, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Proctor of Carmel, to Michael J. Monti of George AFB, Victorville. The morning nuptial mass was performed by Monsignor Thomas Earley of Salinas.

Paul Caswell of Salinas gave his granddaughter in marriage. Julie's pearl white ensemble combined a slim sheath with removable silk train, fitted shell top of re-embroidered Alencon lace and a flared-back jacket. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a head piece of pearl embroidered petals and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white roses mixed with tiny white flowers.

Jenny Delanti of Carmel, maid of honor, wore a long sheath dress of aqua silk, complemented by her crescent bouquet of white and aqua carnations. Annette Grandstedt, the bridegroom's niece, was a charming flower girl in her white frock carrying a basket of white and aqua flowers.

Theodore Granstedt of Sunnyvale served as his brother-in-law's best man.

Mrs. Proctor greeted guests wearing an aqua knit dress with matching hat and white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ercole Monti of Carmel, chose a pink knit suit, matching hat and black accessories.

Following a reception at the Corral de Tierra home of Julie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Caswell, the newly weds left for a honeymoon in Southern California. They will make their home in Apple Valley until sometime in July, when Michael will leave for a year's service in Thailand.

The bride attended Monterey Peninsula College after graduating from Carmel High School. She has two sisters, Kathy and Karen, and a brother, Michael, who is serving in the U. S. Navy.

Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ercole Monti of Carmel, is a graduate of Fremont High School, Sunnyvale. Since joining the U. S. Air Force in 1960, he has served in Korea, Japan, New Mexico and Southern California. He is the brother of Mrs. Nancy Granstedt and Peter Monti of Sunnyvale.

New Tenant At Edgemere

Edgemere Cottages have a new permanent tenant, Scott Daniel Siegrist, who made his reservation from the Community Hospital nursery upon his arrival on May 26. The son of Edgemere owners Mr. and Mrs. Richard Siegrist, Scott has a sister, Gretchen, who will be four in August, and a brother, Alan, aged two. Mrs. Dowe Minnick of Evanston, Illinois, is the new baby's grandmother.

Nursing Training Ahead

Ann Tucker, who graduated from Carmel High School last week, will attend O'Connor Hospital School of Nursing in San Jose with the help of the scholarship awarded her by the Fort Ord Officers' Wives Club. Ann, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Francis Tucker Jr. of Carmel, received the award from Mrs. Charles O. Henry, president of the Officers' Wives' Club. Ann's father is at present on duty in Korea.

Carmelites Wed In Mendocino

Miss Claire Chappellet and William H. Pentony of Carmel were married June 7 in the Presbyterian Church at Mendocino City. After traveling through the north country in search of unusual lumber for the house they plan to build in Big Sur, the couple are now at home in the bride's Carmel Point residence.

The new Mrs. Pentony is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Chappellet of Pebble Beach and the sister of Mrs. Michael B. Forrest of Carmel. She has one brother, Cyril Don Chappellet of Beverly Hills.

The Bain Reamers Here

Bain Reamer, whose father built one of the first two houses on Carmel Point, and his wife, Peggy, arrived from Kailua, Hawaii, June 5 for a five-week vacation here and elsewhere in California. During the first week, they visited Bain's sister, Mrs. Sarah "Sis" Elber, at the family home, also saw his mother, Mrs. George Reamer, who is at Carmel Convalescent Hospital.

On Friday they drove to San Jose to attend the graduation of their daughter, Lani (Mrs. Frank Moeller), from San Jose State College. Their other daughter, Sally, a student at Oregon State University, met them there and the family is now vagabonding through the Mother Lode country.

Steve Whitaker Visited

Dr. Stephen Whitaker and his wife, Nancy were here from Davis last weekend to visit his mother, Mrs. Elaine Whitaker, and exhibit their new daughter, ten-week-old Lynn. With them also were their sons, Jimmy and Larry.

Steve, who graduated from Carmel High School in 1950, is still engaged in research at the University of California at Davis, where he has just become an associate professor in the chemical engineering fluid mechanics department.

Hospital Auxiliary Awards

Awards for service hours completed by Community Hospital Auxiliary members since January were announced at the organization's general meeting on June 6, as follows: 1,000 hours, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. William Schulz, Mrs. Ted Durein, Mrs. King Chase, Mrs. H. P. Kayser, Mrs. Catherine Bolles and Mrs. Charles Simpson; 2,000 hours, Mrs. Louis Gold, Mrs. Charles Hazeltine and Mrs. Gerald Keith; 3,000 hours, Mrs. William Byrnes.

Dr. Edith M. Meyers, chief of the outpatient department, Children's Hospital Medical Center in Oakland, was guest speaker.

Barbieris In Bangkok

Just over a year ago, Mrs. Louis (Beverly) Barbieri, who is the daughter of former Carmelites Mr. and Mrs. John W. Morse, packed up her six children, known as the six "J's," and 483 pounds of baggage to fly to Greece to join her husband. Since then, the family has made their home in a mountain community 200 miles from Athens where Louis, an engineer for Kaiser Industries, was engaged in construction of a dam.

They returned from Greece in May and visited the Morses at their ranch near Grant, Montana, before leaving two weeks ago for Bangkok, Thailand. Lou, who went on ahead to find housing in Bangkok, will be working on construction of a Navy base north of the city.

If the six "J's"—twins Jill and Jeff; Joy; twins Jerry and John; and Jay—don't become linguists, it won't be their parents' fault. Before going to Greece, they spent a year in rural Mexico.

Faith Morrow Wed In East

Faith Morrow, who spent a part of her childhood on one of the beautiful ranches of Carmel Valley, was married Saturday to Stephen Fain Williams in the Friends Meeting House in New York City in the presence of their immediate families. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Howard R. Moody, minister of Judson Memorial Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Wilkie of Katonah, New York, and New York City and of Dwight W. Morrow Jr. of New Hope, Pennsylvania, who gave her in marriage. Faith, an alumna of Milton Academy and Radcliffe College, class of 1963, will study English at Columbia University next year.

Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Dickerman Williams of New York and Norfolk, Connecticut, is a graduate of Millbrook School, Yale College and Harvard Law School. He is an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. The couple will make their home in New York.

MPC Spirit Getters

For the second time, Linda Meyers of Carmel has been chosen as one of the six song leaders to rouse spirits at Monterey Peninsula College. Among new yell leaders chosen for the coming year is Tina Didrichsen who will enter MPC in the Fall. Another Carmel student, Toshia Seeders, will be relinquishing her position as a yell leaders after graduation tomorrow.

Stock Market Notes

By Hugh Hannon

If you think you're confused about the stock market, listen to these quotes of experts who hold responsible positions in the investment field:

"I wish somebody could convince me whether we should be selling on rallies or buying on dips."

"It looks to me like the current rally will be of short duration and that the Dow Jones Averages will go down another 100 points."

"I think we are at the beginning of another great bull (rising) market."

"It is interesting to compare current appraisals with the average levels for the years 1955-57. Today's price to earnings ratio for these 38 leading stocks are pretty much in line with those of the 1955-57 period. The market rose 42% from the highs of that period."

So who's confused? Almost everybody, thats who! No wonder so many invest in mutal funds.

Here is a partial list from a recent survey of leading Wall Street brokers (each gave their two favorites):

FOR INCOME

American Tobacco, CBS, Equitable Gas, Fruehauf, General Motors, Gillette, Jersey Standard, King Seeley, Lorillard, Medusa Portland, Mesabi Trust, North American Aviation.

FOR GROWTH

Addressograph, Bristol Meyers, Crowell-Collier, Eastman Kodak, General Electric, Honeywell, IBM, Motorola, National Airlines, Polaroid, Texas Instruments, Xerox.

FOR THE FAST MOVE

Braniff, Eastern Airlines, General Dynamics, General Tire, Ogden, Pan American, Raytheon, SCM, Teledyne, Texas Gulf Sulphur, TWA, Vanity Fair Mills.

Letter To Editor

Editor,
Carmel Pine Cone

Your June 9 lead article on Mr. Barnet Segal's legal action against our city council is most intriguing as a delineation of the ostensible differences that now afflict our 2-to-3 faction governing body.

We find it something less revealing in clarifying the motivations prompting the two positions, and which, in our opinion, should be of very vital interest to every Carmelite.

We believe that beneath the surface, these two motivations may be classified into two categories: (1) The free spenders; (2) The cautious financers.

The free spenders, apparently unmindful of the preponderantly fixed-income character of our town's taxpayers, seek the saddling of a $600,000 property, Sunset Center, plus an estimated eventual $500,000 municipal complex at Fourth and Junipero, on our little 4,200-soul population, whether such population wants to be so saddled or not.

The cautious financers evidently consider that the cost of Sunset Center, recently having been assumed by our community, requires that an entirely new look should be given to the grandiose plans at Fourth and Junipero, so dear to the hearts of the designers, contractors and money lenders, previously developed, for which there is now only need for the peripheral requirements of a corporation, or street department yard, for which the property was originally purchased. A non-grandiose, inexpensive enlargement of the police station on its present site would continue its highly desirable centrally operative location and still leave some parking space, somewhat along the lines of our neighbor city of Monterey.

Mr. Segal's "alternative writ of mandate" was, at his own expense, a contribution to a possible people's participation in the changed aspect of our municipal financing designed to allow time for greater general consideration—that our Carmel taxpayers might weigh the issues, as between the cautious financers and the free spenders, more carefully.

It should be remembered that the recent school board assault upon our taxpayers was greatly resented indicative of the trend, not only here, but throughout the nation, that our tax spenders must learn to cut their cloth more nearly to the pattern of ability to pay, than of alluring luxury, and in our case devise ways and means of liquidating Sunset Center costs before embarking on a now unlimited venture into municipal luxury on a grand scale. Getting these issues before the public is most appropriately the proper function of our community newspaper, and we urge the Pine Cone to undertake the needed task of having these very vital issues worked out with full public participation as its contribution to the unity of our people.

Royal Hawley

Services for Royal Duncan Hawley are being held at 3 p.m. today at All Saints' Episcopal Church, with the Reverend David Hill officiating. Mr. Hawley, a local resident for the past 11 years, died Monday night at his Carmel Valley home. He was born in Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1881.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, he was a resident of San Francisco from 1906 until 1955, when he retired as regional manager of Poor and Company and Railway Maintenance Corporation. He was the former owner of Royal D. Hawley Railroad Supply Company of that city.

Mr. Hawley, a member of The Peddlers and the Engineers and Transportation clubs, was a former member of the Claremont and Olympic clubs in the San Francisco Bay area. Locally, he belonged to the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

He leaves a nephew, Henry Hawley of Danville, Illinois. His wife, Marguerite, died in 1961.

Private inurnment will follow at El Carmelo Cemetery Columbarium. The Paul Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to make contributions in memory of Mr. Hawley may do so to All Saints' Episcopal Church or to the charities of their choice.

Selected To Study At Lyceum Music Camp

The Lyceum has selected 21 music students (piano excepted) to attend its summer music camp at Asilomar. The students will participate in musical activities with the American Symphony League Conductors' Workshop, June 27 to July 14. Each student will receive a minimum of four private lessons as well as participating in the orchestra's workshop sessions. This advanced training for the students is being made possible by a $2,000 grant from the Monterey Jazz Festival. The orchestra workshop sessions are to be under the leadership of Dr. Richard Lert, conductor of the Pasadena Symphony and Chorus.

Selected from the Carmel Unified School District were Gregory Sprung, trumpet; John Morrice, violin; and Greg Stegeman, trumpet.

The original plans called for judges to select 20 students. Because of a tie in auditions, the judges recommended that an additional student be added. Judges were David Melder, Salinas school system; Melvin Buffo, Monterey; John Farr, Carmel; and John Gosling, director of the Monterey County Symphony.

Party Plans

By Phyllis Jervey

Bridal showers, weddings, graduations, bon voyage and anniversary parties are prominent on June's calendar. So let's start off with a hearts-and-flowers luncheon but with a difference. Ours will be entirely low calorie, yet will consist of tantalizing gourmet dishes streamlined and completely delicious.

Brides and bridesmaids will have no fear that form-fitting gowns will be snug on the big day if all hostesses read "The Gourmet in the Low-Calorie Kitchen" and follow its advice. Helen Belinkie, the author, has worked out ways to substitute low-calorie ingredients for high ones in over 400 recipes.

The strategy for shower givers is to serve spectacular food that won't stretch waistlines or budgets.

LOVELY BRIDAL LUNCHEON
Fruited Wine Punch
Baked Seafood in Shells
or
Stuffed Fried Chicken Roll
Tomato Vegetable Mold
Chilled Chocolate Souffle
Black Coffee

For smaller at home parties, a cool pitcher of fruited wine punch proves more appealing and informal than a punch bowl.

FRUITED WINE PUNCH
(Makes 12 servings)

One orange, lemon and lime, each sliced; Sucaryl solution to taste; one can (6 oz.) frozen orange juice concentrate, undiluted; one bottle (7 oz.) chilled club soda; one bottle (4/5 qt.) rose wine, chilled; strawberries; mint sprigs.

Place fruit slices, spread out, in shallow plastic refrigerator dish. Add sucaryl solution. Let stand half an hour. Thaw orange juice concentrate; pour evenly over fruit. Cover and marinate in refrigerator two days. Remove and place fruit and marinade in large glass pitcher. Add one tray of ice cubes. Fill pitcher with club soda and rose wine. Stir gently to mix. Garnish with sliced fresh strawberries and mint sprigs.

BAKED SEAFOOD IN SHELLS
(Serves 8)

One cup cooked flaked fish (haddock or sole); one cup tiny canned shrimp; 2 tbsps. flour; 2 cups chicken broth; 4 eggs, separated; seasoned salt and paprika to taste; dash of cayenne; pinch of thyme; ½ cup grated Parmesan cheese; parsley sprigs; lemon wedges.

Dissolve flour in cold broth. Bring to a boil; cool and add egg yolks, slightly beaten. Stir vigorously as egg yolks are added. Add seasonings. When slightly thickened, add seafood. Beat egg whites stiff, adding cheese as you beat. Cover filled fluted scallop shells, or ramekins, with egg white mixture and bake in 375 F. oven 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Decorate with parsley sprigs and lemon wedges. (120 calories per serving.)

STUFFED FRIED CHICKEN ROLL

Two chicken breasts from large fryer; ¾ lb. lean ground beef; one tbsp. cooking oil; 2 tbsps. chili sauce; one tsp. prepared mustard; ¾ tsp. salt; one tsp. Worcestershire sauce; one tsp. minced onion; one grind of pepper; one egg; one slice low-calorie bread soaked in water and squeezed out.

Bone breasts and spread flat, skin side down. Flatten with palm of hand. Combine remaining ingredients and mix lightly with fork. Spread evenly over chicken breasts and roll lengthwise in shape of a bologna. Tie with string in several places to keep shape. Heat oil in skillet and brown roll on all sides. Cover and cook about 45 minutes or until chicken is tender and stuffing is cooked through. If gravy is desired, add a little water and season to taste. Remove strings and serve hot or cold. Present the whole roll at the table but serve sliced. Decorate with tiny rose buds. (155 calories per serving.)

TOMATO VEGETABLE MOLD

Two envelopes lemon flavored D-Zerta gelatin; 2 scant cups hot tomato juice; one cup thinly-sliced celery; one cup low-calorie sweet pickle relish; well drained; ½ cup cooked frozen peas, drained; ½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce; few drops Tabasco; greens.

Prepare gelatin according to directions using hot tomato juice instead of water. Cool. Rinse a heart-shaped mold in cold water (or use any pretty mold). Combine all but gelatin mixture and place in mold. Pour the cooled gelatin over vegetables and chill until firm. Unmold on platter and surround with crisp greens such as Bibb lettuce hearts. (35 calories per serving.) Pass low fat cottage cheese and low calorie crackers.

Sugar-Free

Chilled Chocolate Soufflé

For chocolate lovers, here's a majestic, eye-catching Chocolate Marble Soufflé that's deliciously sweet and rich-tasting, and at the same time is low in calories. A do-ahead dessert, this airy, delectable chilled soufflé is made early, served cold and glamorous hours later.

In keeping with the modern trend toward calorie-saving cookery, this diet-minded recipe has been calorie-streamlined to but a fraction of its usual calorie count. Calorie cutting is made easy through the use of the old calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl, which replaces all of the sugar normally required in the recipe. Sweet result . . . more than 100 calories have been slashed from every serving.

Chocolate Marble Soufflé
(Low-Calorie)

- 3 envelopes (or tablespoons) unflavored gelatin
- ½ cup cold water
- 8 eggs, separated
- 7½ teaspoons Sucaryl solution
- 2 cups skim milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cup cocoa
- ½ cup nonfat dry milk
- ½ cup ice water

Fasten a 6-inch band of aluminum foil around a 1½ quart soufflé dish, allowing 4 inches to stand above top of dish. Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine egg yolks, Sucaryl, skim milk, and vanilla in top of a double boiler; blend well. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, until thick. Remove from heat; add softened gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Divide mixture in 2 bowls. Blend cocoa into mixture in one bowl. Beat egg whites stiff; fold half into each mixture. Combine dry milk and ice water; beat on high speed of mixer until stiff, about 10 minutes. Gently fold half into each mixture. Alternately spoon vanilla and chocolate mixtures into prepared soufflé dish to create a marbled effect. Chill several hours until set.

Makes 10 servings. Each serving contains 127 calories; 11.5 grams protein; 6 grams fat; 8.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 235 calories.

Reverend Allen

The Reverend Don Bala Allen, a retired minister of the United Presbyterian Church, died on June 8 in a Los Angeles motel. With his wife, T. Diner Allen, he was en route from Santa Fe, New Mexico, to the couple's Carmel home.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, he was born September 27, 1889.

Both Reverend Allen and his wife were professional writers, having to their credit eight novels and numerous non-fiction articles. For the past two years they had been teaching creative writing for the Institute of American Indian Arts in Santa Fe.

In addition to his wife, Reverend Allen leaves a sister-in-law Mrs. Carl Glover of Monterey.

Services were held Sunday afternoon at the Carmel Presbyterian Church, with Dr. George Hunter Hall officiating.

Contributions in memory of Reverend Allen are preferred to the Central Mission Trails Heart Association, P. O. Box 191, Monterey.

The Paul Morturay was in charge of arrangements.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel 624-3881.

Mrs. Cartwright

Private services were held on June 9 at the Paul Mortuary for Mrs. Isabel Branson Cartwright, who died May 7 in a local hospital after a period of failing health.

A resident of Carmel since 1953, the well known portrait artist was born in Coatsville, Pennsylvania, September 4, 1885.

Mrs. Cartwright, whose work was exhibited widely in galleries throughout the country, was the recipient of a gold medal from the Art Club of Philadelphia and of the Mary Smith Prize from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. She was a member of the Carmel Art Association, the Ten Philadelphia Painters, the Art Alliance and the New York Society of Women Painters and Sculptors.

Surviving are two sisters, Miss Katharine Branson and Mrs. Sarah Cornell, both of Carmel.

Those wishing to honor the memory of Mrs. Cartwright may do so through contributions to the charities of their choice.

Children's Reading Program Under Way

This summer the Harrison Memorial Library again is offering membership in the Beachcomber Club to interested summer readers. The club began as soon as school was out and will go on until sometime in August.

Once again children will be encouraged to read a specified number of books and will receive shells as prizes. Chief Beachcomber will be Mrs. Dorothy Colvin, the children's librarian. Emphasis will be on reading a few books for information and pleasure, rather than upon reading as many books as can be crowded into the summer. This plan also allows full club standing to children who are to be away part of the summer but who would like to belong while they are here.

There will be a party of some sort when the summer is over. So sing hi, sing ho, and away we go . . . to join the Beachcomber Club!

MPC Instructors From Carmel Plan Sabbatical Studies Abroad

When Monterey Peninsula College's spring semester ends tomorrow, three faculty members who reside in Carmel, also one who lives in Carmel Valley, will be starting sabbatical leaves.

Accompanied by his wife and son, Jack, Rod Holmgren, chairman of MPC's journalism department, will head for Afghanistan, where, under a Fulbright teaching fellowship, he will teach at Kabul University from July 1 through December. In January and February, he will remain in Kabul as a consultant to the Kabul Times, an English-language daily tabloid—an arrangement made through the U. S. Educational Foundation in Kabul. He will also act as Kabul correspondent for Copley News Service during his stay in Afghanistan.

For the balance of the 1966-67 academic year, the Carmelites will be in Europe, where Mr. Holmgren will complete his sabbatical project, which involves a study of recruitment and training of journalists. He will visit journalism schools, departments and institutes in London, Amsterdam, Louvain, Lausanne, Paris, Strasbourg, Zurich, Rome, Naples, Perugia, Vienna, Aarhus Stockholm Goteborg and Oslo.

He also intends to visit some of the main AP, UP and Reuters bureaus, the International Press Institute at Strasbourg, the mass media section of UNESCO in Paris, the British Film Institute, the BBC and the Paris editions of the New York Times and New York Herald-Tribune.

Also traveling in Europe will be Dr. Idelle Sullens of Carmel, English and humanities instructor who published a grammar workbook this year. Driving through England and Europe in July and August, she and Miss Irene Davis will return via the East Coast, visiting Washington, D. C. for "scholarly business"; and Boston and New York for "publishing business." After that she intends to live for the balance of her sabbatical year in Woodside, where she owns some property on which she may build a house. There she will work on a humanities text "and finish scholarly projects that have been waiting for time, time, time."

English instructor Robert Hinwood of Carmel, who will be taking a half-year sabbatical during the fall semester, will spend the early part of the summer preparing to travel to Mexico. In Mexico, where he hopes to find a suitable house for his family (Mrs. Hinwood and their two sons), he has two projects in mind: finishing a novel on which he has been working; and studying. In terms of taking specific courses, his plans are "not formalized yet. It's necessary to be there, on the spot, to know what courses fit my intentions and time requirements. However, if such courses are available, I'll study the techniques of composition for Mexican students learning English at the college level, and Mexican and South American literature in English."

Engineering instructor Joel Readio and his wife, residents of Carmel Valley, will spend a portion of their summer as volunteer faculty members — "volunteer," though they were invited to do so —at the National Aquatic School at Camp Tulequoia in Miramonte, California. The American Red Cross will pay their travel costs.

After that Mr. Readio, who has spent several summers doing graduate work at Stanford University under National Science Foundation grants, will spend the entire academic year in graduate study and research in the area of material science at Stanford. Meanwhile, Mrs. Readio will finish her bachelor's degree at the College of Holy Names in Oakland.

COMPLETED SPECIAL COURSE

Major Robert I. Simpson Jr. completed the 18-week associate course May 13 at the Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Designed to prepare officers for command and general staff duty in divisions or logistical commands, the course also familiarizes them with duties of the general staff at corps and Army levels.

Major Simpson's wife, Alexa, is a Carmel resident.

Documented in an inspiring new book

One hundred years of healing through prayer

This book presents an impressive record of authenticated cases of outstanding physical healings and spiritual regeneration through Christian prayer. It is a timely response to today's renewed interest in spiritual healing.

The reader will find many instances where the individuals who experienced the healings explain the spiritual awakening which brought about those healings. This book commemorates the Centennial of the discovery of Christian Science in 1866 by Mary Baker Eddy. It is offered in a spirit of sharing the hope and joy of ordinary lives deeply touched by the Christ.

Callison To Defend State Title Next Week On Peninsula Courses

Verne E. Callison of Sacramento is the man to beat in the 55th California Amateur Golf Championship to be played over four area courses Monday through Sunday.

Callison, defending his 1965 title, will be seeking a rare "back to back" win. Not since 1954-55, when Dr. F. M. (Bud) Taylor of Upland was champion, has a player captured the title twice in succession.

Returning for a potential rematch is Dr. Art Butler of Glendora, runner-up to Callison last year.

The championship tournament will be played at Pebble Beach Golf Links and Cypress Point Club. The handicap event is scheduled for the Monterey Peninsula Country Club and the Del Monte golf courses.

Other scratch players posing a threat to Callison and Butler are F. C. Bradley, Pacific Palisades; James E. Rheim, Jr., Stanford; Guy Bill, Oakland; and Peter Choate, Los Angeles.

One handicappers are Ron Moore, West Covina; Bruce Osborne, La Mesa; John Richardson, Long Beach; Charles Van Linge, Portola Valley; Bob Ireland, Atherton; Steve Stimac, Concord; William Feil, Los Angeles; Phil King, Sacramento; Brad Lobares, Saratoga; Vic Loustalot, Sacramento; Dick Reis, Los Angeles; and Charles Williams, Inglewood.

The north-south team matches between selected eight-man teams from the Northern California Golf Association and the Southern California Golf Association will be played Saturday, 10 a.m., at the Pebble Beach links and Sunday, 1 p.m., at the Cypress Point Club.

All team members, including Verne Callison of Sacramento, who is defending his 1965 state title, are entered in the amateur championship.

Team members to play both days are Callison; Vic Loustalot, Sacramento; Dan James, Millbrae; Guy Bill, Oakland; and James Rheim Jr., Stanford.

Teaming with the first five on Saturday are Charles Van Linge, Portola Valley; Robert A. Roos, Jr., San Francisco; and Jack Bariteau, San Jose.

Playing on Sunday are Eli Bariteau, Jr. of Santa Cruz, who won the 1958 and 1948 state championships; William McCool, San Francisco; and Mel Hutchins, Sacramento.

Named as alternates for the two-day match are Raymond Arinno of Sacramento and Jack Chapman of San Mateo. Ray E. Fischer of Sacramento is the nonplaying captain.

MPCC CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY UNDER WAY

A larger number of men than last year, 74 in all, has qualified for the Monterey Peninsula County Club Championship Tournament, the finals of which will be played on July 4.

Harry Turner, thrice club champion, shot a 72 in the qualifying round on the MPCC Shore Course to become the medalist.

There will be nine flights in this tournament, including the championship flight. Qualifying scores will determine in which flight players are placed.

The first round of match play was completed May 29, the second on June 5. Remaining rounds are scheduled for June 12, June 19 and June 25.

Maxine Shore's Writing Classes Celebrate End Of Successful Year

Writing isn't all hard work. And writers don't always spend all of their time at their typewriters. This was pretty well borne out recently by two parties which were held to celebrate the conclusion of another successful year of Maxine Shore's adult education course, "Writing for Publication."

Mrs. Shore's beginning class attended a dinner party given at the home of Miss Virginia Lavigne. In addition to an excellent meal, members received a handsome printed souvenir booklet representing the combined literary talents of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham of Pacific Grove. It contained capsule reviews of the kinds of books the members of the class were least likely to write.

A program, for which Mel Vercoe was master of ceremonies, included skits and a hula by a class member.

Among those present at the party were Mrs. John Arnn, Mr. and Mrs. Don Condren, Miss Lyda Mae Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham, Mrs. Marjorie Haller, Mrs. Katharine F. Hollister, Mrs. Carol Knych, Mrs. Susan Loomis, Mrs. Betty O'Grady, John H. Powell, Mrs. Jean Snow, Miss Mira Talbot, Lt. and Mrs. Ronald Trossbach, Mrs. Elsie Viereck, Steven Shore, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Vercoe, Mr and Mrs. A. Davis Whelchel, Mrs Flora Myer, and Mrs. Julie Philips.

Mrs. Shore's advanced class gathered at the home of Mike and Betty Antoncich in Carmel Valley. While the members of the advanced class discussed their latest publication efforts, Mrs. Antonich served an excellent dinner. At the party Mrs. Shore received a beautiful pin from the class. Those attending were Brig. General and Mrs. Francis Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Liese, Mrs. Oliver Applegate, Margo Hilliard, Mrs. Marjorie Grovner, Mr. and Mrs. William Monlux, Mrs. William Griffith, Steve Shore, Mr. and Mrs. Ali Heshmati, Mr. Lee Winninger, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bayless and their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meyer, Mrs. Julie Phillips, Mrs. Mary Kirwan, Lisa Thomson, Mrs. Helen Small, Col. and Mrs. Even Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pomeroy, Mrs. Margaret Lang.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

Notwithstanding the fact that summer publishing is often a dreary round, we really do have some good books this week. To start with, take a look at Oscar Lewis' new one entitled "SUTTERS FORT: GATEWAY TO THE GOLD FIELDS." This is particularly ours because not only is the author a Californian but Sutter and the gold fields are California history. This is part of the American Fort Series which is being brought out by Prentice-Hall. It is the story of Captain John Sutter and the small kingdom he built up, of his family and friends, of the Donner Party, of the American West and California. Illustrated with interesting photographs many of which are the unflattering ones common to the period.

The next book is an example of poor bookmaking, for it is printed on shiny slick paper rather like a textbook. Overlooking its uninviting exterior — it is fascinating —for it is a discussion of the various natural disasters against which flimsy mankind has little or no defense. The title is "THE ELEMENTS RAGE" and it was written by Frank Lane. Here we learn about hurricanes, tornadoes, avalanches, floods, earthquakes and volcanoes. The pictures are most interesting. There is an index in case you wish to look up your favorite catastrophe.

"THE ROMANTIC WAY" by Vincent Cronin is the study of four women and their search for love and adventure. According to the jacket blurb there is a new wave of romanticism washing over Europe. This may be true. What with the Beatles and all such, it seems hard to believe! This book tells of Caroline, Duchess de Berry, Marie d'Agoult, Eve Hanska, and Marie Bashkirtseff. All four were women famous in their day and all were associated with famous men, such as Franz Liszt and Honore de Balzac. All four were capable of intense joy and utter misery. "THE ROMANTIC WAY" is good reading.

Those of you who receive requests for funds to be used in work with the poor in Korea by Bishop Choi of Pusan, will be especially interested in "THE STARVED AND THE SILENT" by Aloysius Schwartz. Father Schwartz is a parish priest in Pusan and has worked with Bishop Choi in their effort to give aid to these desperately poor people. If you are mentally cursing the income tax or the high cost of living, read this book and begin counting your blessings. And then send a contribution to the good Bishop.

"Who believes in witches today? Who can accept as fact the testimony of ages past that witches could fly, or change themselves into cats or hares or wolves, or bring wasting diseases to a neighbor or blight to his crops, or blow up a storm to sink a ship at sea?" Gillian Tindall has written a book about all this and called it "A HANDBOOK ON WITCHES." This is indeed a handbook being small and light, but it is full of interesting information about witches now and in history. Surprisingly enough, there is an index replete with names of witches!

And so, springing lightly upon her broomstick she sped over the treetops and into the low-lying fog!

Arts Commission Free Summer Events At Forest Theater

The Carmel Arts Commission announces its 1966 series of free Sunday afternoon programs at the municipal Forest Theater which will begin on June 26. The opening summer program will be presented by the Allegro Concert Ensemble playing "Music For a Sunday Afternoon" under the direction of H. M. M. Nicholas. Soprano Norma Jean Hodges will be featured. A portion of this program will be dedicated to the late Mary Lindsay-Oliver, Carmel pianist, painter and music critic.

Subsequent programs will include a variety show on July 3 featuring a young Los Angeles magician, William Taylor, who will perform feats never before attempted on an outdoor stage. Renee Würzmann and the Ivanovsky Ballet will appear, too, on this date.

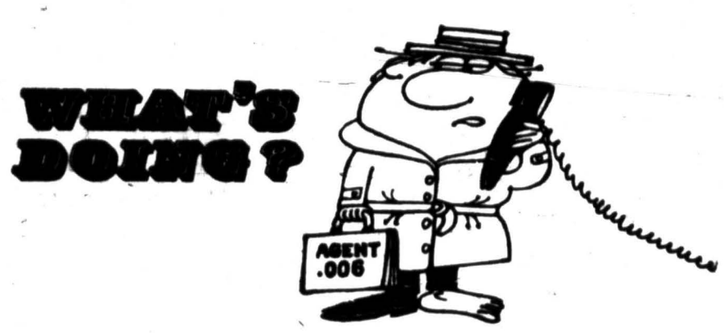
On July 10, the Beyer String Trio with Wade Parks, pianist, and Ray Fabrizio, flutist, will be presented.

Entertainment planned for later Sunday afternoons includes the MPC Brass Ensemble, a square dance festival, a return performance of the Salinas Valley Highlanders, a bagpipe group.

All programs will begin at 2 p.m.

CAMERA CLUB CONTEST TONIGHT

The Padre Trails Camera Club will hold its monthly club contest at Carmel High School tonight at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a highly competent judge to criticize and award ribbons. Black and white as well as color slides will compete and the subject matter will be reflections, abstractions or semi-abstractions. Visitors are welcome.



Here's a story from my "tots and telephones" collection. A young mother found her three-year-old turning the telephone dial. She shooed her daughter away, picked up the phone and started to dial, when the little girl said, "You don't have to do that, Momma, I already stirred it up." (When you're "stirring" your phone, please remember that careful dialing stops wrong numbers before they start).

The 1966 Monterey and San Bentio Counties Telephone Directory has now closed for both alphabetical and yellow page listings. Directory deliveries will begin July 19, and as you may already know, this year's cover features the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

If there's a bride-to-be in your family this month, you're probably discovering what a big help your telephone can be—keeping friends and relatives informed as plans progress . . . calling the church, florist, photographer, beauty shop . . . checking on the wedding gown and bridesmaids dresses. And all this help costs you very little, because phone rates in California are among the lowest in the nation.

PINPOINT PROFILE

Ardee Rochex, editor of Canterbury Tales, retirement residence bulletin, was a delight to interview. Her wit and charm, ever spontaneous, bubbled forth and as we talked her busy life unfolded chapter by chapter.

Ardee was born and raised in San Mateo.

After completing San Jose Normal school (as it was called — in those days) she taught in the San Mateo schools for a number of years.

Subsequently, she married and had one daughter.

Many years were spent in working with Girl Scouts, Rainbow Girls, Episcopal Church activities, Mills Memorial Hospital and Red Cross. During her years with Red Cross she served in every known department. This work proved an outlet for her enormous energies, with the result — after a long period of research—she compiled a documentary entitled "A History of the American Red Cross, San Mateo County Chapter," starting with World War 1.

Writing has always been a compelling attribute—for instance, before Ardee graduated from normal school, she was writing for the college paper, and thoroughly enjoyed editing the annual year book.

Another of Ardee's hobbies was collecting gourmet cook books. All sorts of surprise dishes were served her family, who by all standards, soon became connoisseurs—whether they wanted to or not.

This charming lady, with a twinkle in her eye, will always be "forever young." As I left her, she was ready to attend a committee meeting and on her shoulder perched a little devil pin . . . somewhere from a drawer she drew forth another pin—this one an angel;complete with a pearl halo.

"My friends know just by looking at my pin what kind of a mood I'm in," quoted our delightful pixie with a grin.

Faith Renewed In Man

Albert Molendyk feels a little about his beret as Linus does about his blanket. It's not that he couldn't buy another one, even if cost a good deal more, but it simply wouldn't be the same as the comfortable, familiar piece of headgear he picked up in San Sebastian, Spain, last year. About ten days ago, while on a hiking outing, he lost it at Pfeiffer's Camp in Big Sur and, despairing, put a sign on the bulletin board. Tuesday he received a package from Big Sur Lodge which contained his precious beret but no clue to the finder—only a polite request for 20 cents postage. "Who said there are only a few real honest people left in this world?" Mr. Molendyk asks.

CARMELITE FROM NORWAY

When Else Tofte, shown above in the holiday dress of her native Hardanger province of Norway, chose to stay in the United States after she came to visit last December, it was a fortuitous decision for her and for her employer, Norway House owner Mona Micander. Mrs. Micander's professional background in hand weaving, design and color complements Mrs. Tofte's experience in knitting, fitting and style sense to produce a winning combination in the shop devoted to pleasing those in search of unique apparel.

Another Else has just come to Norway House: the "Else" hand-knit designs made exclusively for Mrs. Micander in Bergen, and unusual they are, indeed. Other one-of-a-kind models are ordered by Norway House from Trondheim, Oslo and Stavanger, which are among the areas where the owner finds also the attractive assortment of gift items for the shop.

Ginger Joins The Family

Three local families had cause for rejoicing on May 30, when Ginger Yvonne Westcott was born at Community Hospital. Both her native Carmelite father, George E. Westcott, and her mother, the former Gloria Jean Borgman, are Carmel High School graduates. The couple also has a son, George, Jr., who will celebrate his second birthday July 1.

Ginger's doting grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Westcott and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin Jr. She also has a maternal great-grandmother, Mrs Nina Wilson of Sacramento.

Joey Foster In Ibadan

After a slightly apprehensive three months, the Malcolm Fosters have received a letter from their son, Malcolm "Joey," informing them he is teaching physics at the government college in Ibadan, Nigeria. Joey, a graduate of Carmel High School and Amherst College, entered the Peace Corps last January.

His adventures outside the academic world included a hitch-hiking trip all over the country with another volunteer. "Just like home,' relates Joey, "except that the high point was riding all day and night in a lorry full of dried fish crawling with maggots." At Bauchi, they found they couldn't afford the elegant hotel-resort but managed to wangle showers and a swim in the pool to forget the maggots, also had their first haircuts in three months while relaxing beneath shade trees.

Guests At The Barrons

Current guests of Gerald V. Barron, Democratic candidate for U. S. Congress, at the Barron's Yankee Point home are his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Barron of St. Paul, Minnesota, and their children, Teri, Danny and Michael.

The local Barrons' teenagers, Jerry and Mary, are busy showing their cousins some of the beaches and other points of interest, also giving them rides on Mary's horse, Pixie.

Tom Barron, an ardent golfer, has played Pebble Beach, MPCC and Spy Glass Hill, finding them all he expected. Daughter Teri, who was an exchange student in Rio de Janeiro last year, says "Rio is beautiful, but Carmel has beauty AND charm."

After the visitors leave for Southern California en route to Minnesota, the Barrons will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lynott of Sleepy Hollow, Marin County. The Lynotts' daughter, Connie, is an expert horsewoman who has often won ribbons at the Pebble Beach horse shows.

A Memorable Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey L. Carpenter of Pebble Beach were hosts Sunday at a family reception celebrating the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Carpenter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Fryburg of San Mateo, who were married 50 years ago in Twin Bridges, Montana.

The honored guests' son, Russell Fryburg Jr., his wife and their children, Mark and Brooke, came from Eugene, Oregon, for the event held at The Tennis Ranch in Carmel Valley. The Carpenters' daughters, Joan and Jan (Mrs. Riley Wilson), were present to offer their congratulations, as were Jan's husband and the couple's son, Mathiew, also Mr. Carpenter's brother, Richard Carpenter of Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Edwards Retires

Adelle Marie (Mrs. Edson L.) Edwards of Carmel, art teacher at Fremont Junior High School in Seaside, has retired after a career extending through two decades with the Monterey Public Schools.

Mrs. Edwards, who achieved career teaching classification as a master teacher in 1961, has been active in various school and community projects. Her contribution to schools and education was officially acknowledged last month by the Monterey Union High School District Board of Trustees and she was also honored at a Fremont Junior High School faculty party following the close of school.

Another New Carmelite

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Priestley Jr. are the happy parents of a first daughter, Patricia Langley, who was born on June 2 at Community Hospital and has been welcomed home by her brothers, Bobby, seven, and Bill, five and a half.

Filling in for Patricia's grandparents, all residents of the Los Angeles area, are the Rollo Paynes, her great-uncle and aunt. Mrs. Ruth Nash Priestley is the baby's paternal grandmother, Robert W. Priestley Sr., her paternal grandfather. Another grandfather, Dr. Edward C. Pallette, is a resident of West Los Angeles.

The Priestleys' hope of a home in Carmel came true at Thanksgiving, when they moved here from Southern California. "We're delighted to be here—and we don't miss the smog one bit," they report.

TASSAJARA ENCOUNTER

Tassajara Encounter, a seminar for the advancement of the cultural arts patterned after Haystack Mountain School of Crafts in Maine, will open Monday at Tassajara Hot Springs, the rustic resort in the wilderness of Los Padres National Forest reached through Carmel Valley. There will be no formal classrooms for the ten-week series of craft workshops under the direction of well known professionals in the several fields. Instead, emphasis will be placed on use of the natural surroundings for materials and the construction of equipment and tools.

From Monday to July 1, Joe Soldate will lead a workshop on ceramics and kiln building; Cliff Robinson will guide students through the history and application of the art of batik; and Hal Painter will teach weaving, including simple loom construction, using the setting for inspiration and materials —local grasses, ferns and plants.

A photography workshop, sponsored by the San Francisco Art Institute, will be held July 8 to 18 and July 18 to 28, when each of five nationally known photographers will work with the class for two days. They are Ansel Adams, Morley Baer, Wynn Bullock, Brett Weston and Blair Stapp.

July 11-22, Stan Bitters will exploit clay structures in both pot and sculpture form, employing native materials and richness of surface design in place of glazes.

During the same period, Jean Ray Laury's students will experiment with a variety of materials in stitchery design, creating linear drawings as well color masses in fabric applique.

The glass workshop August 1-19, under the direction of Trevor Long of the Royal College of Art in London, is for anyone interested in the art of glassmaking. It will include instruction in fusing and combining colored glass, perhaps ceramics, experimentation with free-forming glass under heat, glass sculpture and decorative treatment of flat glass.

Vacation "potrips" using clay and fire in a primitive fashion to make pottery have been conducted by Hal Riegger for several years. These will set the pattern for his workshop, August 8-19, emphasizing a fresh, inventive approach to the art of using clay and other materials.

At the same time, Bob Winston, noted authority and pioneer in the lost wax process of casting jewelry, will direct the jewelry workshop, teaching also such techniques as hammering and cutting. Inventiveness will be stressed.

A featured part of the series will close the summer, with a Perception Workshop for Families August 22-September 2. Designed to heighten family unity and understanding through the unique approach of creativity in a group situation, it will be led by Gloria Churchman and Kenny Leek.

Descriptive brochures and applications may be obtained by writing Tassajara Encounter, Box 408, Carmel Valley. Space is limited and reservations are essential. Applications for the photography workshop in July must be made to the San Francisco Art Institute, 800 Chestnut Street, San Francisco.

Sculptor Alexander Weygers is again offering his Summer Sculpture Workshop at his Carmel Valley studios outdoors under the oaks. The six-week course runs from June 15 through July 30.

Activities will cover stone and wood carving, clay modeling and plaster casting, and the making of fine carving tools at the forge.

Mr. Weygers brings to these meetings a thorough training and rich experience in the arts. He is recognized and valued as a fine instructor by the many students and teachers who have worked with him in Carmel Valley, as well as in various universities, colleges and art schools.

The six-week period also will include several field trips to the mountains and seashore for native stone and wood to carve, also to scrap heaps and dumps of salvage yards for the finest steel from which carving tools will be made.

For detailed information telephone 659-2074.

Premium books and entry forms for the Monterey County Fair fine arts, crafts and photography exhibits are now available and may be obtained at the fair grounds in Monterey or by writing to Box 1151, Monterey. All entry forms in these three categories must be returned before August 1.

The Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts is offering a Children's Workshop from June 28 to August 30. Instructing the children, aged six through eight years, will be Louise James. The group will meet on Tuesdays, 1:30-4:30 p.m. in Sunset Center. Further information may be obtained at AFA headquarters on Lincoln Street.

A color slide program, "The Advance of Art and Architecture in Old Mesopotamia and Persia," will be presented by Mrs. Walter Jennings tonight at 8:30 p.m. Sponsored by the Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts, it will be the first in a series of programs by Mrs. Jennings to be held in Sunset Center cafeteria.

The pictures were taken a year ago when Mr. and Mrs. Jennings took an extended tour of the Middle East searching out examples of art and architecture of the ancient civilizations. They will be shown in the order of their creation, beginning with Ur, Babylon and some of Iran. The public is invited to attend for $1.00 admission, no charge for AFA members.

Miss Tess Sedweek Heads Woman's Club

Miss Tess Sedweek was installed as the new president of the Carmel Woman's Club on June 6. The incoming officer, who has acted as recording secretary for the past two years, has been a resident of the Peninsula since 1959. A graduate engineer of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, she studied further at Columbia University and has had an active career in her professional field. During World War II, Miss Sedweek taught planning classes at Vassar College. She acted as executed secretary of the Regional Planning Board of Western New York and was a staff member of the New York Thruway Authority. As president of the New York State Federation of Planning Boards, she was the only woman among the masculine members of the group.

Elected to serve with her for 1966-67 were Mrs. John R. Lynas, first vice president and program chairman; Miss Dorothy X. Peacock, second vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. Mary Thomas, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles N. Pearson, treasurer; and Mrs. Edmund W. Murphy, corresponding secretary. Board directors elected to head the divisions were Mrs. Blanche M. Mack, card section; Mrs. Clare Appleby, book section; Mrs. D. MacMillan Kerr, house and garden section.

Mrs. Joseph S. Daly will serve the club as hospitality chairman, Major Frances Ewing as house chairman, Mrs. C. J. Hale as chairman of flower arrangement and Mrs. Raymond Mapstead as ways and means chairman. Publicity will be in charge of Mrs. Allan Craig. Named to the nominating committee for 1966-67 were Mrs. Conrad Imelman and Mrs. Alexander W. Cleary.

Life memberships in the organization were awarded to Miss Mabel Stark and Mrs. Walter C. Adams.

Preceding the election of officers, club members enjoyed a potluck luncheon, with the outgoing board of directors acting as hostesses. The report of the nominating committee, consisting of Chairman Ianthe Densmore, Miss Marion Eley and Mrs. E. M. Porter, was presented by Miss Eley and the slate of officers introduced.

Church Of Wayfarer Organist Is Honored

In recognition of her 50 years as organist for various churches in northern California, Mrs. William W. (Connie) Carruth of Hacienda Carmel, organist for the Church of the Wayfarer, was honored on May 5 with a luncheon at La Playa Hotel.

The Reverend Alexander C. Bryans, pastor of the church, served as master of ceremonies for the surprise event, relating the background of Mrs. Carruth's life and talent to a gathering of some 90 friends and family members. Many of the guests had been associated with her in her numerous musical and community activities.

John Farr, former choir director of the Church of the Wayfarer, sang a solo paraphrasing "Auld Lang Syne." Mrs. Henry F. Venn read a composition by Dr. Fred Farley, following which the honoree was presented with a money tree to be used for a vacation of her choice. Mrs. Carl E. Welchner closed the delightful program with the solo, "Thanks Be to God."

Among the guests introduced were James Farlinger and J. W. Larson, local organists, and Mrs. Harold Miller of San Jose, who have substituted in Mrs. Carruth's absence during vacations; also, Eldon Harris, present choir director of the church.

Members of Mrs. Carruth's family who came from Oakland for the celebration were Mrs. Kenneth Keefer and her children, Mrs. Norman Ellis and her son, Arthur, Mrs. Ray Keefer and Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Keefer. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Florence Morrison and Miss Elizabeth Morrison of Berkeley, also Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller of San Jose.

Connell Keefer Carruth started playing the organ in the church of her childhood, The Church of the Advent, now known as the Church of St. James the Apostle. Later she became the organist at St. Paul's and subsequently St. Peter's Episcopal churches of Oakland. She was also a member of the music faculty of Mills College, her own alma mater, and is a member of the American Guild of Organists. She accepted the position of organist for the Church of the Wayfarer in 1952, after serving as guest organist for a time. At that time she played on a Hammond organ which was transferred to the church's Little Chapel when the present organ was purchased from her late husband and former teacher.

Mrs. Carruth has endeared herself in the community not only through her own church, but as accompanist for many Bach festivals. Because of her talent, Mr. Bryans has suggested that Mrs. Carruth present a Sunday concert for the public in the fall.

Ruth Elmer

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Ruth Matheson Elmer, former Carmel resident, in Glens Falls, New York. A native of Simcoe, Ontario, she was born October 21, 1876.

Mrs. Elmer made her home with her sister, Miss Kate Matheson of Carmel, until 1960, when she moved East to live with her daughter, Mrs. William F. Miller Sr. of Glens Falls.

While a Carmel resident, she was active in the Carmel Foundation Town House and the Korean Sewing Group of the Church of the Wayfarer.

She also leaves a son, Frank Elmer of Glens Falls; two granddaughters and seven great-grandchildren. Her husband was the late George Elmer.

Friends wishing to make contributions in her memory may do so to the Carmel Foundation, National Foundation for Crippling Diseases or the Heart Fund.

Mary Olsen

Requiem mass was celebrated yesterday morning at Carmel Mission Basilica for Mrs. Mary Olsen, a resident of Carmel for the past 23 years, who died Sunday in a local nursing home after a period of failing health.

Mrs. Olsen leaves three daughters, Mrs. Paula Cunningham of Carmel, Mrs. Mabel Wallace of Victoria, B. C., and Mrs. Mary Herrmann of Stockton; a son, Walter Olsen of New York; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Her husband, the late Valdemar Olsen, died in 1959.

Burial took place in the Catholic section of Mission Memorial Park. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"—this is the question explored in the Bible Lesson to be presented at all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The Golden Text is from I Samuel: "The pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them."

Opening the Lesson-Sermon will be Paul's statement in Hebrews: "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear."

The theme is explained further in references from the Christian Science textbook, including these: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but in spiritual development. . . . Through many generations human beliefs will be attaining diviner conceptions, and the immortal and perfect model of God's creation will finally be seen as the only true conception of being" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL SERVICES
OFFICE OF ARCHITECTURE AND CONSTRUCTION
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Office of Architecture and Construction in Room 1228, 1120 "N" Street, Sacramento, California; until 2:00 P.M., Thursday, July 7, 1966, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in Hearing Room in Basement at said address, for construction of SEWER PLANT AND DISPOSAL SYSTEM, DIVISION OF BEACHES AND PARKS, PFEIFFER-BIG SUR STATE PARK, MONTEREY COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, (W. O. CB01 073 C), in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and such addenda thereto as may be issued prior to bid opening date.

In general, this project comprises the construction of a sewage collection and disposal system.

Construction includes the installation of approximately 12,500 lin. ft. of vitrified clay and galvanized steel pipe of various diameters, pumping stations, a sewage treatment plant and disposal system, installation of certain State furnished items, and other work as indicated.

In addition, the project includes the demolition of an existing sewage treatment plant at the Ventura School for Girls, near Camarillo in Ventura County, and the removal and transportation of salvaged items of machinery, equipment, piping and appurtenant items to Pfeiffer-Big Sur for reuse in this project.

Bids will be entertained on a lump sum basis only.

Plans and specifications, forms of proposal and Bidder's Bond may be obtained by requesting them in writing from the Office of Architecture and Construction, P. O. Box 1079, Sacramento, and they may be seen at the Office of Architecture and Construction, 1120 "N" Street, Sacramento, and 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland, and the Builders' Exchange Offices.

A deposit of $25.00 (check made payable to the Department of General Services) will be required to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within 30 days after bid opening. Failure to so return both the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the State.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a standard proposal form furnished by the Office of Architecture and Construction and is made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1B of the Specifications. Each bidder must be licensed and also prequalified when required. (See said Section 1B.)

The Department of General Services reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid received.

Apprentices: Pursuant to Section 1777.5 and 1777.6 of the Labor Code and in accordance with regulations of the California Apprenticeship Council, (See Title 8, California Administrative Code, Sections 18000 et seq.) and local apprenticeship standards for the trade, properly indentured apprentices may be employed in the prosecution of the work.

Information relative to apprenticeship standards, wage schedules, and other requirements may be obtained from the Director of Industrial Relations, ex officio the Administrator of Apprenticeship, State Building Annex, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, or from the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and its branch offices.

It is State policy to encourage the employment and training of apprentices on public works contracts as may be permitted under local apprenticeship standards.

Prevailing Wage Rates: Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code, the Department of General Services has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and employer payments for health and welfare, vacation, pension and similar purposes in the County in which the work is to be done to be as hereinafter set forth in this notice.

Copies of all collective bargaining agreements relating to the work to be performed as set forth in the aforementioned Labor Code containing information relating to wages, fringe benefits, subsistence, and travel pay are on file and are available for inspection in the offices of the Division of Labor Statistics and Research of the Department of Industrial Relations.

Employer payments other than those hereinafter itemized, as defined in Section 1773.1 of the Labor Code, are to be paid in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the type or classification of the workmen or mechanics employed on the project.

The following shall govern as to overtime and Sunday or Holiday work: overtime work—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments; Sunday and Holiday work—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments. The holidays upon which such rate shall be paid shall be all holidays, recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type or workmen employed on the project.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Carmel Sanitary District at the office of the Secretary, Ricketts Building, Carmel, California until 7:30 P.M. on July 5th, 1966, at which time they will be publicly opened and read for performing work as follows:

Construction of Carmel Valley Interim Trunk Sewer, in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor adopted, to which special reference is hereby made.

Pursuant to the statutes of the State of California, the District Board has by Resolution No. 671 ascertained and adopted the general prevailing rates of per diem wages and rates for overtime and legal holidays in the locality in which the work is to be performed as follows:

Classification	Hourly Rate	Per Diem (8 Hours)
Laborer	4.325	34.60
Teamster	5.125	41.00
Operating Engineer	4.615	36.52
Carpenter	5.285	42.28
Cement Mason	5.675	46.40

Any classification omitted herein not less than $4.325 per hour or $34.60 per day.

Per diem wages shall be deemed to include employer payments for health and welfare, pension, vacation and similar purposes.

Overtime—not less than one and one-half (1-½) times the basic hourly rate.

Sundays and Holidays—not less than one and one-half (1-½) times the basic hourly rate.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check or bidder's bond payable to the Carmel Sanitary District, in the amount of not less than ten (10) percent of the bid, signed by a corporate surety or by the bidder. The cash or check shall be forfeited or the bond shall become payable to the District, in case the bidder does not, within ten (10) days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District.

The District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bid or in the bidding.

Plans and specifications, forms of proposals, bonds and contracts may be inspected at the office of the District Secretary or at the office of Kennedy Engineers, 604 Mission Street, San Francisco 94105, California, or obtained at either office for a deposit of five dollars ($5.00) which will be refunded only to general contractors submitting bonafide proposals to the District.

CUSD Board Approves $2.4 Million Budget

A balanced $2.4 million budget was approved by a narrow 3-2 vote of the Carmel Unified School District board on June 8. Opposing the budget, which was submitted by Superintendent Medill Bair, were board members Clayton Neill Jr. and Steven Sassoon.

At the previous board meeting, Mr. Bair had been asked to provide more funds in the budget area for transportation as a means, maybe, of not limiting bus service only to students who live seven miles or more from their schools. Mr. Bair reported he was able to add additional amounts to the transportation budget by the elimination of one high school English teacher; cutting out one incoming telephone line from schools having more than one phone; and by reducing the amount of money spent for school libraries. In this way, he provided $19,249 for the transportation fund. Joking about the removal of the extra telephone lines, he said, "I know some principals who would like to have all incoming telephone lines removed."

Mr. Neill, however, was not happy with the cuts. He felt that if the district could eliminate one teacher, it should at least be able to make some cuts from the $94,846 provided in the administrative section of the budget. Mr. Bair's budget cuts were supported by Chairman Dr. Robert E. Newton, Dr. Hilton Bialek and Mrs. Roxana Blanks.

When asked by a member of the audience if the board had any idea of what increases would be made in the bus routes, and what the routes would be, Dr. Newton indicated that the board had not yet determined these matters.

Last Monday, the board met to figure out the procedure for hiring a new superintendent. Mr. Bair, who resigned as superintendent of the Carmel Unified School District, has not yet received official acceptance of his resignation from the school board. He will become the new superintendent of the Hartford, Connecticut, schools.

Four new teachers will join the Carmel Unified School District following board action last week. They are Miss Regina Duggan from Pacific Grove, who will be an elementary grade teacher; John G. Collins, from South Bethlehem, New York, a social studies teacher at Middle school; Mrs. Lynette Richardson, from Eugene, Oregon, an elementary grade teacher; and Roland Schut from Grand Rapids, Michigan, a science teacher at Middle school. Leaving the district is Thomas Hamil of River School who plans to continue his studies at the University of Washington.

PLAYDAY HORSE SHOW SATURDAY EVENT

The Carmelo 4-H Light Horse Group will hold a playday horse show Saturday at 1 p.m. on Meadows Road, Carmel Valley. The public is invited free of charge. Entry fee for the event, which is sponsored by the Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club, is 50 cents.

A PARADOX . . . LUXURIOUS CUSTOM CONSTRUCTION & RUSTIC SIMPLICITY

METICULOUS CONSIDERATION OF EVERY DETAIL by an exacting owner and a top-notch architect resulted in a finished product that deserves inspection by a discerning purchaser . . . one of Carmel's outstanding contemporary homes situated in a sunny area. Featuring rough-sawn redwood interior as well as exterior, a whole property developed in driftwood and earth tones, a unique cantilevered aggregate hearth, and a spacious deck with access from bedroom, livingroom & dining-area, this residence is suitable for both full-time and part-time occupancy. Some of the many custom-built details include carefully-planned garden of sand and aggregate with pleasing redwood retainers and planters, designed-to-scale outdoor furniture items, completely walled property area, unusually-ample storage closets.

DESIRABLE CARMEL POINT LOCATION

A COMFORTABLE HOME PLUS A STUDIO COTTAGE a short distance from Scenic Drive is to be sold to settle an estate . . . no bidding is required. The main house comprises three bedrooms, livingroom, sun-porch, country-style kitchen and two-car garage. Separated from the house by a colorful small garden is the two-room studio, guest cottage, or income unit. A good market value at $49,750. Available for Immediate occupancy.

TRANQUIL, WOODSY AREA

LAVISH AMOUNT OF USED BRICK COMBINED WITH HEAVY SHAKE ROOF make this nearly-new home attractive to the purchaser who values charm of setting and design. Large livingroom, separate diningroom, two bedrooms, two baths and very colorful, equipped kitchen. Drapes, shutters, carpeting included in the purchase price.

TWO EXCELLENT BUILDING SITES IN RANCHO RIO VISTA

make fund transfers from the non-reserve capital hostelry tax fund to cover payments when they arose.

This procedure was "an attempt to control and conserve the hostelry tax income." If a larger sum had been budgeted, then not used, the remainder would have been placed in the general fund surplus at the end of the fiscal year this month, thus lost to interest earning non-reserve funds in the bank, Mr. Plaxton explained.

Mr. Whittlesey observed that this method was "prudent accounting policy."

Mr. Norberg then launched into the entire history of the police station and corporation yard construction project which had escalated from an original $200,000 to $384,000.

The Mayor then called for the vote on the needed fund transfers so that the city would be in a position to pay its bills. Mr. Whittlesey stated the vote would clearly show "what member of the city council was not willing to pay debts incurred."

In the vote on the transfers necessary to pay Burde Shaw Associates and Granite Construction Company Councilmen Sefton and Norberg voted "No." The motion failed.

After the first transfer vote, Mayor Grant noted that this action gave public notice that these councilmen did not want to pay the bills.

But this was not the end of last night's battling.

At the close of regular business, Mayor Grant asked Mr. Norberg if he had a report as commissioner of public welfare. Mr. Norberg did not, so the Mayor read the report of the building inspector's office which is Mr. Norberg's responsibility.

"How many times have you been in this office in the past year?" the Mayor asked Mr. Norberg.

"Two or three times," suggested Mr. Norberg.

"You have been there once for five minutes to measure the size of the premises to see if they could be placed at Sunset Center. I have a record of the date," the Mayor declared.

Mr. Norberg then said he had his own report to make, if forced to do so, on the building inspector's office. This turned out to be a year by year account of the rise in the expense of maintaining a department now consisting of two inspectors and a secretary.

Carmel's expenditure for its building inspector department, increased from one man in 1959-60 to three employes and a $140 a month rented office in 1965-66 was "gross waste of public funds," Mr. Norberg maintained. He included the employment of a planing director in this waste.

Mr. Whittlesey defended the planning director job by saying it had been of great advantage to the city in considerations of the area plan, to which Mr. Whittlesey had devoted much time as the city's appointed representative to the area planning commission. He particularly referred to present area plan study of the Del Monte Properties, Fish, Odello and Riley-Hudson plans which will have a great impact on conserving the scenic resources of the areas around Carmel.

"I have long labored in the vineyard," countered Mr. Norberg and mentioned the number of times he had tired to prevent undesirable commercial development at the entrance to Carmel Valley.

"The light that shines brightest shines at home," remarked Mayor Grant when Mr. Norberg ended his dissertation.

ished units. Another owner, Howard Bucquet, pointed out that the density is less than 350-400 motel units permissible under present zoning.

The rezoning matter was refeered to the commissioner's planning and conservation committee.
